I hereby certify that the following work falls under the classification of public domain. I understand that the unit identified above will perform at local, regional and –if they so choose to- national color guard/indoor percussion competitions. There is no license necessary to use this work. Therefore, there will be no cost to the unit. I also understand that the competitions at which the arrangement will be performed may be recorded by Indiana Percussion Association (IPA) to be sold at a future date. I hereby grant IPA permission to record the arrangement as performed by the unit named above, to edit the performance at its discretion, and to sell video tapes and DVDs containing the recorded and edited performance. I also grant permission for the use of the arrangement in edited video and/or sound clips of the recorded performance to be used in any and all media usages. This agreement to use the work is also granted at no cost to the unit or to IPA.
